

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

Between

WILLIAM PATERSON UNIVERSITY

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

and

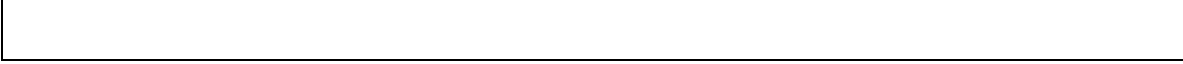

BERGEN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND CORRECTIONAL STUDIES PROGRAMS

The intent of this articulation agreement is to define the program-to-program transfer articulation between William Paterson University, Sociology Department, and Bergen Community College, Criminal Justice Studies programs. The principal beneficiaries of this agreement are students seeking to transfer into the Sociology major, Criminal Justice Concentration, who have completed the AAS degree in Law Enforcement (AAS.HS.LAWE) or Corrections (AAS.HS.CORR).

William Paterson University agrees to accept all the general education, major course, and free elective credits included in this agreement. Course equivalencies previously articulated will also be accepted, and will serve as the basis for equivalencies. Grades of C and above will be acceptable for transfer of courses.

This agreement will become effective immediately upon the signatures of both parties. Immediately thereafter William Paterson University will provide information packets for transfer admission, special transfer days and other recruitment services. In turn Bergen Community College will make available to its students all information, including the list of course equivalencies pertaining to program articulation as outlined in this agreement. The agreement and equivalencies will be reviewed on a regular basis.

PRINCIPLES OF THE AGREEMENT

Completion of Bachelor's Degree Programs

Bergen Community College transfer students will be required to meet all graduation requirements as listed for William Paterson University students.

Specific Requirements

The determination of major program requirements for a baccalaureate degree in the Department of Sociology shall be the responsibility of William Paterson University.

Recommended Courses and Degree Patterns

See appendix for the recommended course selection in the AAS.HS. LAWENF (Law Enforcement) degree.

Eligibility

A. Grade-point average requirement

For admission to William Paterson University, Department of Sociology, the student will be required to earn at least a 2.00 overall average on a four-point scale.

B. Review of courses already articulated and taken at Bergen Community College

Students with an AAS Degree

Students who earn the aforementioned Associate in Applied Science (AAS) degrees at Bergen Community College are guaranteed junior status admission to William Paterson University, conditional upon completing the aforementioned degrees. (See Appendix 1 and 2 for approved course selections.) Associate of Science (AAS) degree students will be provided by William Paterson University with individual evaluations of course work based on course equivalencies articulated between Bergen Community College/William Paterson, Sociology Department.

In addition, William Paterson University will waive the application fee for students who indicate on their applications for admission that they are applying to the University under the terms of this agreement, and are determined by the University to have met said terms.

Financial Aid

Bergen Community College students transferring to William Paterson University will be treated the same as native William Paterson University students of equal class standing when applying for financial aid and in the award and distribution of funds.

Agreement Review and Update

Bergen Community College and William Paterson University will assign a staff member to serve as a liaison to assure maintenance of communication between the two institutions. As necessary, Bergen Community College and William Paterson University faculty shall meet to discuss academic programs, especially with regard to any changes being contemplated. William Paterson University and Bergen Community College representatives will consult whenever changes in policy and or curricula are implemented which will affect students transferring under the terms of this Agreement. In addition, both institutions shall review this agreement on a regular basis, and make any changes that are mutually agreed to when necessary. Representatives from both institutions shall also facilitate support, consultation and collaboration between their faculties in matters related to this Agreement, general education, degree requirements, articulated courses and other academic matters.
