Tina Magrabi
received an Associate Degree from Bergen Community College and transferred to Yale University.

Uncertain of her goals or her talents, Tina Magrabi enrolled at Bergen Community College as the first step toward discovering her potential. At Bergen, Tina was encouraged and guided by top-notch professors who took an interest in her future. She made friends and became a leader on campus, graduating Valedictorian of the Class of 2001. Armed with several scholarships, Tina transferred to Yale University. BCC graduates have transferred to Harvard, Columbia, Cornell, Rutgers, Montclair State University, and other first-rate four-year institutions. Get your start by calling BCC today.
