Faculty Highlights

A panel on civic engagement was held at the American Sociological Association's national conference which featured college presidents from four states including BCC's own Dr. Ryan. Dr. Dolce organized and moderated the session.

December 26 will mark the 25th anniversary of the Child Development Center. There will be a day long celebration in E-Hall. It was established by Dr. Daniels and Dr. Flax under a CIRG Grant.

Dr. Ochoa will lead a round table concerning methods to enhance teaching psychology online at the Northeastern Conference of Teachers of Psychology to be held at Western Connecticut State University on October 19.

Dr. Birnback led an environmental weekend at the Edward Forsythe National Wildlife Refuge which will feature a program on migratory birds on October 4 – 6.

Prof. Solomon's excellent exhibition of photographs featuring people and places in Argentina, Brazil, Peru and Guatemala is now on exhibit in the student cafeteria.

The Polish Culture Club will sponsor a lecture by Peter Salierno on the history of the Polish National Catholic Church on October 25. (Dr. Wiater and Maria Makowiecka mentors).

Dr. Dolce has been invited to chair a panel "Opportunities and Obstacles to Faculty Professionals at Community Colleges" for the American Sociological Association's national convention in Boston next August.

Joe Eldred, adjunct, has invited Eric Roth of the Historic Huguenot Street project to make a presentation at BCC on October 24.

Reference Librarian Lynn Schott was one of nine librarians who recently spoke to students in the Master of Library and Information Science program at Rutgers University's School of Communication, Information, and Library Studies. The speakers introduced students to a wide variety of library and information science careers, sharing personal experiences and answering questions. Ms. Schott talked about working as a community college librarian and the benefits of being active in the New Jersey Library Association.
