Faculty Accomplishments/Highlights

Library Circulation Assistant Jenn Presutto has a new look for spring. Two years ago, Jenn's mother was diagnosed with cancer. Jenn decided to let her hair grow long enough to donate it to Locks of Love, an organization that collects donated hair to make wigs for under-privileged children, who suffer from long-term, permanent medical hair loss. This past week, Jenn had more than the required 10 inches of hair to spare, so out came the scissors at Head to Head Salon, in West Milford, NJ. Jenn's pony-tail was then put into a plastic bag and mailed to Locks of Love. According to the Locks of Love Web site, Jenn's pony-tail will join six to ten other pony-tails to make a wig. Locks of Love provides these wigs and hairpieces free or nearly free-of-charge to children in the hope of raising their self-esteem, confidence and a sense of normalcy. Jenn is happy to report that her mother is doing well and that everyone loves her new look.

Bergen Community College had the largest contingency at the MATYCNJ (Mathematics Association of the Two-Year College, New Jersey Chapter) meeting on Saturday, April 26, 2008. Kaat Higham, President-Elect of the Chapter, was responsible for the Spring Program. She will serve as president next academic year. Dorothy Giglietta continues to serve as recording secretary. Sandi Silverberg was the moderator for the panel discussion, which provided an update of state-wide concerns and decisions, in accordance with the Lampitt Bill. There was a lot of interest in the information that was provided. Other Bergen attendees included Lenore Lerer, past President, Rosa Kontos, Nelda Latham, Cathy Flynn, Linnie Hui, and Louise Contini. Bergen Community College continues to be extremely active in this statewide professional organization. Next Fall's meeting will be held at Bergen.
