

Empowering Women

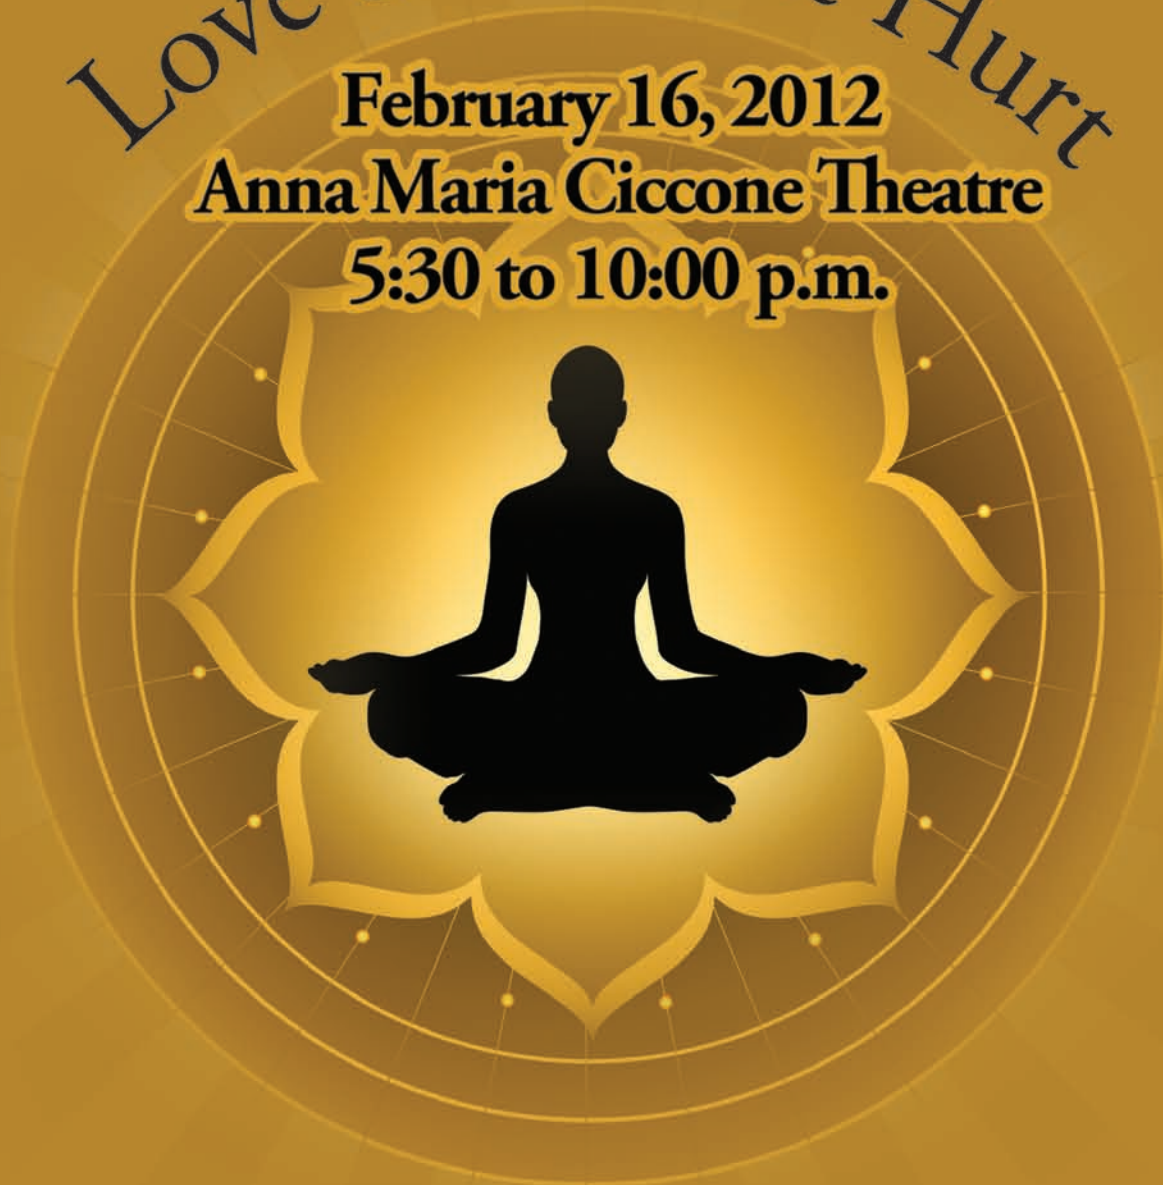

An Experience That You Can't Miss

Love Shouldn't Hurt

February 16, 2012

Anna Maria Ciccone Theatre

5:30 to 10:00 p.m.

National Experts Speak Out About Violence Against Women

An evening of healing and empowering women through the mediums of theatre, poetry, and education.

Please join us for Black History Month in our efforts to end domestic violence and spread awareness for people of all ages and diverse backgrounds.

Co-Sponsors

Violence Intervention Prevention Center of BCC-Funded by the U.S. Dept. of Justice, Office of Violence Against Women
Bergen Community College Black History Month Committee
The Mary Kay Foundation
National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc. Bergen/Passaic Chapter

Keynote Speakers and Performances Include:

Laila Muhammad, Founder, Ash-Shamsiyaah (The Umbrella) Family Service
Juanita Gaddy, Future Executive, Senior Executive, The Mary Kay Foundation
"Something to Cry For" (Play): Ms. Carla Williams
"From Ashes to Angel's Dust" (Play): The Angel's Dust Theatre Company

Admission is free. Light refreshments will be provided. For additional information, please contact Vannette John at (201) 447-7432 or email vjohn@bergen.edu or Professor Shari Franschman at (201) 689-7064 or email sfranschman@bergen.edu.

