I-20 Extension Request Form

Please note that extensions on I-20's can only be granted for one year at a time. No more than two extensions may be given to a student while attending Bergen Community College.

- In order to complete an extension, you must prove your financial capability. You must prove:
- $18,000 if you need an extension for one full year or $9,000 if you only need one semester to complete your degree, in the form of an original bank statement, that is current within six months.
- If you have a spouse, you must prove an additional $8,000, and $4,000 for each additional child.
- If you have a sponsor, your sponsor must fill out an Affidavit of Agreement.

You can print off the Agreement of Support, and the Agreement for Free Room and Board at: <http://www.bergen.edu/isc/forms> Information regarding extensions may be found at: <http://www.bergen.edu/pages/2956.asp>

I will be traveling over the winter/spring/summer break, and also need a travel signature on this extended I-20. (Circle One) Yes No
(Please note that you must be registered full time for the following semester for a travel signature)

How many semesters will you need to complete your degree?: _____

I understand that immigration states that I must make normal progress; therefore I cannot have my I-20 extended at Bergen Community College more than two times, unless given permission by a BCC International Counselor. I also understand that I must provide BCC with original financial documentation, in order for BCC to complete the extension of my I-20.
