

Finding Information on Literature

Literary Criticism/Analysis

Online sources accessible from the Library's home page: <http://www.bergen.edu/library/>

Under Find Articles, go to Full List of Databases.

Sort by SUBJECT and scroll down to "Literature" to locate these databases:

- Bloom's Literary Reference Online
- Literature for Students Online
- Literary Reference Center (EBSCO)
- Literature Resource Center (GALE)
- JSTOR: Language & Literature

Under Find Articles, go to Frequently Used Databases, which include literary criticism published in journals—good sources if you are researching contemporary authors' works. Try:

- Academic Search Premier
- ProQuest Research Library

Books:

Go to Find Books on the Library's home page. Search by subject or keyword to find books about your author. (See example for Ernest Hemingway →)

Find Books/Reserves/Media _____

Enter Search Terms:

Subject Keywords Author Title Call Number Periodical Title

Reserve/Textbook by Course Reserve/Textbook by Professor

Many reference books are indexed online by the Gale Literary Index. Find this source on the Full List of Databases. It will list which reference books have criticism on the work or author you are researching.

Biographical Information about Authors

Most of the online sources listed above under Literary Criticism/Analysis provide biographical information on authors.

Books are also good sources for biographical information. Please see the above instructions for finding books in the Library.

For more suggestions see our online guide:
<http://bergen.libguides.com/literature>

Need help? Call 201-447-7436 or e-mail us at <http://www.bergen.edu/library/ask> or visit the Reference Desk at the Library